

The Pieces Don't Fit Anymore

V1

I've been twisting and turning in a space that's too small
I've been drawing a line and watching it fall
You've been closing me in, closing the space in my heart
Watching us fading and watching it all fall apart

Br

Well I can't explain why it's not enough
Coz I gave it all to you
And if you leave me now
Oh just leave me now
It's the better thing to do

Ch

It's time to surrender
It's been too long pretending
It's no use in trying
When the pieces don't fit anymore
The pieces don't fit here anymore

V2

You pulled me under so I had to give in
Such a beautiful mess that's breaking my skin
Well I hide all the bruises; I hide all the damage that's done
But I show how I'm feeling until all the feeling has gone

Br

I can't explain why it's not enough
Coz I gave it all to you
And if you leave me now
Just leave me now
It's the better thing to do

Ch

Well it's time to surrender.....

M8

Oh, don't misunderstand how I feel
Coz I've tried, yes I've tried
Still I don't know why
Yes I don't know why

Br

I can't explain...

It's time to surrender....
